

20 Ways To Do Good This Summer

A List for Families

Do you have a summer bucket list? Is it full of activities like swimming, reading, and camping? Don't forget to add acts of kindness! Check out these fun and easy ideas for helping others over summer break.

1.

Write a thank-you note to a community helper.

2.

Volunteer to walk a neighbor's dog.

3.

Make everyone's bed in your home.

4.

Put away carts in a store parking lot.

5.

Pick a few toys you've outgrown and donate them for another child to enjoy.

6.

Hold the door for the person behind you.

7.

Make a pretty bookmark and leave it in a library book.

8.

Visit a retirement community and spend time talking to residents.

9.

Put up a lemonade stand and hand out lemonade for free.

10.

Pick up litter in your neighborhood or around your school.

11.

Write friendly chalk messages on the sidewalk.

12.

Call a family member or friend and ask how they are.

13.

Let someone go ahead of you in line.

14.

Help someone with gardening or yard work.

15.

Send a postcard to a friend, family member, or deployed soldier.

16.

Spend a few hours as a helper to a parent with young kids.

17.

Gather old blankets and towels and give them to the animal shelter.

18.

When you see another person drop something, pick it up for them.

19.

Draw a picture for one of your favorite grown-ups.

20

Raise money for something you care about. When you donate to St. Jude, you're helping kids just like you fight cancer. Get everything you need for a do-it-yourself fundraiser here:

St. Jude Children's
Research Hospital
Finding cures. Saving children.
ALSAC - DANNY THOMAS, FOUNDER